About this capture

Who is human? Who is not?

Only Jews are human

"You are called men, but non-Jews are not called men."
Bava Metzia 114b

Note Rabbi Shimon ben Yohai's ruling: "...only 'you,' the members of the Jewish people, are called men, but non-Jews are not called men."

TRANSLATION AND COMMENTARY

Rabbinic tradition, Elijah the Prophet and Pinehas the grandson of Aaron were one and the same person.) "Why, then, do you render yourself ritually impure by standing in & cemetery? Priests are forbidden to contract the ritual impurity imparted by a corpse. A corpse is a primary source of ritual impurity, and can transfer that impurity by physical contact, by being carried (even if it is not touched), and by what is known as "tent impurity (טוּמְאַת אֹהֶל). If a person bends over or under a corpse, or enters a structure within which a corpse is lying, he contracts "tent impurity."

מַאי טַעְמָא קָאֵי מַר בְּבֵית הַקְּבָרוֹת? אָמַר לֵיהּ: לָא מַתְנֵי מַר "טְהָרוֹת"? תַּנְיָא: "רַבִּי שִׁמְעוֹן בֶּן יוֹחַי אוֹמֵר: קִבְרֵיהֶן שֶׁל נָכְרִים אֵין מְטַמְּאִין, שֶׁנֶּאֱמַר: וְאַתֶּן צֹאנִי, צֹאן מַרְעִיתִי, אָדָם אַתֶּם, אָדָם אַתֶּם — אַתֶּם קְרוּיִין אָדָם, וְאֵין נָכְרִים קְרוּיִין אָדָם".

LITERAL TRANSLATION

[1]What is the reason that the master is standing in a cemetery? [2]He said to him: Did the master not learn [the order] "Purities"? [3]For it was taught: "Rabbi Shimon ben Yohai says: The graves of non-Jews do not convey ritual impurity, [4]for it is said: 'And you My flock, the flock of My pasture, you are men' — [5]'You' are called men, but non-Jews are not called men."

"נקמלי פת קמתני". אין מספיקין — הגני סופל כמיט "למיס" (במדבר יט) "למיס כי יטמא נפשו".

Surely, then, you are forbidden to enter a cemetery, lest you bend over a grave and contract ritual impurity from the corpse buried there? [2]Elijah answered: Have you not studied the order of the Talmud known as "Purities"? If you had studied that material properly, you would know the answer to your question: [3]For it was taught there in a Baraita: "Rabbi Shimon ben Yohai says: The graves of non-Jews do not defile by 'tent impurity,' [4]for the verse says (Ezekiel 34:31): 'But you My flock, the flock of My pasture, you are men' — [5]only 'you,' the members of the Jewish people, are called men, but non-Jews are not called men." And regarding the ritual impurity contracted from a corpse by "tent impurity," the verse says (Numbers 19:14): "This is the law, when a man dies in a tent, all that comes into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shall be ritually impure seven days" The laws of "tent impurity regarding a corpse apply only if the deceased was a Jew. Thus Elijah was permitted to enter the non-Jewish cemetery.

Chapter Ten

Commentary Halacha 1

It is forbidden to have mercy upon them, as [Deuteronomy, ibid.] states: "Do not be gracious to them." - Sefer HaMitzvot (Negative Commandment 50) and Sefer HaChinuch (Mitzvah 426) consider this to be one of the 613 mitzvot of the Torah. (Further particulars regarding this commandment are mentioned in Halachah 4.)

Accordingly, if we see an idolater - These laws apply only to an idolater who does not belong to the seven nations. It is a mitzvah to slay a Canaanite, as mentioned above.

being swept away or drowning in the river, we should not help him. If we see that his life is in danger, we should not save him. - In Hilchot Rotzeach UShemirat HaNefesh, the Rambam explains the derivation of this law. The mitzvah to save a person whose life is in danger is derived from the verse [Leviticus 19:16], "Do not stand idly while your colleague's life is in danger." We can infer that these laws apply only to "your colleague," a fellow Jew who does not openly rebel against theIt is, however, forbidden to cause one of them to sink or push him into a pit or the like, since he is not waging war against us. - Tosafot, Avodah Zarah 26b, note that although our Sages declared, "Kill even the best of the gentiles," and that, as mentioned above, the Rambam states in Hilchot Melachim 8:10 that any gentile who does not accept the seven universal laws commanded to Noah and his descendants should be slain. These directives, however, can be interpreted to apply only in a time of war or in a time when the Jews have control over the gentiles. When the Jews are in exile or must take into consideration the dictates of gentile authorities, an idolater cannot be slain merely because of the sin of idol worship.

To whom do the above apply? To gentiles. - Significantly, the Rambam does not use the term idolaters. Note, however, the laws mentioning a ger toshav in Halachot 2 and 6 and commentary.

these are the righteous among them, in virtue of whom they are 'living soul'. According to another explanation, these are the angels sent as God's messengers into the world, of whom we have already spoken. R. Abba said that 'living soul' designates Israel because they are children to the Almighty, and their souls, which are holy, come from Him. From whence, then, come the souls of other peoples? R. Eleazar said: 'They obtain souls from those sides of the left which convey impurity, and therefore they are all impure and defile those who have contact with them.'

AND THE LORD SAID, LET THE EARTH BRING FORTH LIVING SOUL, ETC. This includes all the other animals (except man), each after its kind. R. Eleazar said: 'The repetition of the words "after its kind" confirms what we have said before, that "living soul" refers to Israel, who have holy living souls from above, and " cattle and creeping thing and beast of the earth" to the other peoples who are not "living soul", but who are as we have said.'

LET US MAKE MAN IN OUR IMAGE, AFTER OUR LIKENESS, i.e. partaking of six directions, compounded of all, after the supernal pattern, with limbs arranged so as to suggest the esoteric Wisdom, altogether an exceptional creature. 'Let us make man': the word adam (man) implies male and female, created wholly through the supernal and holy Wisdom. 'In our image, after our likeness': the two being combined, so that man should be unique in the world and ruler over all.

AND GOD SAW ALL (eth kol) THAT HE HAD MADE, AND BEHOLD, IT WAS VERY GOOD. Here the word 'very' makes good the omission of the words 'that it was good' in the account of the second day. On the second day death was created, and, according to our colleagues, the expression 'very good' refers to death, 'And God saw, etc.' Assuredly He had seen all before, but the Scripture here indicates by the accusative particle eth that God now saw also all the generations which were to be, and everything which was to happen in the world

That's the cover story, anyway. But the truth it is somewhat more macabre, as Tishby relates: "... the presence of Israel among the nations mends the world, but not the nations of the world.... It does not bring the nations closer to holiness, but rather it extracts the holiness from them and thereby destroys their ability to exist... [T]he purpose of the full redemption is to destroy the vitality of all the peoples."

Quotes from the Jews' most recent "messiah"

Rabbi Menachem Mendel Schneerson the "Messiah" (1902-1994)

"The difference between a Jewish and a non-Jewish person stems from the common expression: 'Let us differentiate.' Thus, we do not have a case of profound change in which a person is merely on a superior level. Rather, we have a case of 'let us differentiate' between totally different species."

"This is what needs to be said about the body: the body of a Jewish person is of a totally different quality from the body of [members] of all nations of the world ... The difference in the inner quality between Jews and non-Jews is so great that the bodies should be considered as completely different species."

"An even greater difference exists in regard to the soul. Two contrary types of soul exist, a non-Jewish soul comes from three satanic spheres, while the Jewish soul stems from holiness."

"As has been explained, an embryo is called a human being, because it has both body and soul. Thus, the difference between a Jewish and a non-Jewish embryo can be understood."

"...the general difference between Jews and non-Jews: A Jew was not created as a means for some [other] purpose; he himself is the purpose, since the substance of all [divine] emanations was created only to serve the Jews."

"The important things are the Jews, because they do not exist for any [other] aim; they themselves are [the divine] aim."

"The entire creation [of a non-Jew] exists only for the sake of the Jews."

It is in the Jewish interest, it is in humanities interest that whites experience a genocide. Until white children are burned alive, white women raped, mutilated, murdered and all white men who have not been slaughtered watch powerlessly as their people are terrorised; only then will mankind be on a more equal footing, ready to discuss white privilege and the apparent chip on the shoulder that minorities have. - Ishmael Levitts

Israel is working on a biological weapon that would harm Arabs but not Jews, according to Israeli military and western intelligence sources. The weapon, targeting victims by ethnic origin, is seen as Israel's response to Iraq's threat of chemical and biological attacks....

In developing their "ethno-bomb," Israeli scientists are trying to exploit medical advances by identifying distinctive genes carried by some Arabs, then create a genetically modified bacterium or virus.

The intention is to use the ability of viruses and certain bacteria to alter the DNA inside their host's living cells. The scientists are trying to engineer deadly micro-organisms that attack only those bearing the distinctive genes.

The programme is based at the biological institute in Nes Tziyona, the main research facility for Israel's clandestine arsenal of chemical and biological weapons.

A scientist there said the task was hugely complicated because both Arabs and Jews are of semitic origin. But he added:

"They have, however, succeeded in pinpointing a particular characteristic in the genetic profile of certain Arab communities, particularly the Iraqi people."

"'Show no Mercy to a non-Jew'

"In the Middle Ages (the Rishonim era), Moses Maimonides devoted twelve years to extracting every decision and law from the Talmud of Babylon, and arranging them into fourteen systematic volumes. The work was completed in 1180 as the Mishneh Torah.

"In the Mishneh Torah, Moses Maimonides taught in 'Avodat Kochavim' chapter 10, "Show no mercy to a non-Jew."

"He gave the following example: 'If we see a non-Jew being swept away or drowning in the river, we should not help him. If we see that his life is in danger, we should not save him.'

"Situation Ethics in the Killing of Christians

"Maimonides also taught that Christians should, under the proper circumstances, be killed. [see above] The 'proper circumstances' are predicated on Rabbi Maimonides' situation ethics: when Talmudists are powerfully dominant over goyim then worshippers of Jesus can be executed.

"This is the foundation of Rabbi Maimonides' ruling on when Jewish doctors may refuse to treat non-Jewish patients: when Jews are sufficiently supreme in a nation that the refusal to treat will not result in repercussions and reprisals from goyim, who would be too cowed to retaliate in a nation where Jewish supremacy was nearly total. It is instructive to observe that Maimonides in Mishneh Torah, Sefer Ha-Mada, Avodah Zara 10:1-2, ruled that goyim not currently at war with Israel should neither be actively killed, nor saved from death: 'It is prohibited both to save them from dying and to kill them.'

"This is not a simple open-and-closed finding. Many more rabbinic texts have been generated, setting out the situation ethics entailed by this injunction. Cf. for example Rabbi Nahmanides, Hidushei HaRambam, Makot 9a. The key law giver Rabbi Joseph Karo, compiler of the highly credited legal volumes of the Shulchan Aruch, looks upon Maimonides' ruling not as a ban on the killing of goyim, but a means for temporarily dispensing a Jew from the obligation to kill them, while doing nothing to save them from death.

"With this in mind, we observe how halakha is applied and enforced subject to contingencies such as the ones that Maimonides stipulated: the legal, political and social position of Jews in the nation in which they reside, and the goyim with whom they are dealing.

"So for example, in contemporary occupied Palestine ("Israel") most Christians, Muslims and Arabs in general may be killed with relative impunity, as the situation demands. There may be a temporary uproar in the western world in protest, but historically these protests have subsided, with no lasting detrimental effect on the Israeli state. In times past however, in nations where Christian or Muslim governments were vigilant concerning crimes against non-Jewish persons, the field of action against Christians and Muslims as promulgated by law-giver Rabbi Moses Maimonides in his Mishneh Torah, was restricted by the circumstances. Maimonides himself served for a time as the personal physician to the family of the sultan of Egypt, ostensibly dispensing with the Talmudic dictum of showing no mercy to goyim. The situation demanded however, that the Talmudic ethic be suspended for the time being for a more paramount objective — to allow Maimonides to gain influence with the nation-state's ruling family....

"Israel Meir Kagan (1838–1933), the halachic authority known as the Chofetz Chaim (a.k.a. the Hafetz Hayyim), condemned the behavior of any Judaic physician who did not discriminate between Jews and non-Jews. Concerning Judaic physicians, Rabbi Kagan wrote in *Mishnah Berura*h: O.H. 330, '...to treat a non-Jew...there is no authority for them to do so.' (The halakhic status of Rabbi Kagan's Mishnah Berurah, was assessed by Simcha Fishbane in The Encyclopedia of Judaism, as follows , 'His greatest work, which remains the strongest influence on Orthodox practice today and whose authority is considered final, is Mishnah Berurah [1884-1907], in six volumes')."

You begin to perceive the Jewish traditions of physician-poisoners and the ritual murder of Christian children, traditions that have plagued the world since ancient times. Those traditions are thoroughly documented by Dr. Ariel Toaff, the son of the former Chief Rabbi of Rome, in his book, Bloody Passover: European Jews and Ritual Homicide.

In other words...

The disease could be spread by spraying the organisms into the air or putting them in water supplies.

The research mirrors biological studies conducted by South African scientists during the apartheid era and revealed in testimony before the truth and reconciliation commission.

The idea of a Jewish state conducting such research has already provoked outrage in some quarters because of parallels with the genetic experiments of Dr Josef Mengele, the Nazi scientist at Auschwitz.

Dedi Zucker, a member of Knesset, the Israeli parliament, denounced the research yesterday.

"Morally, based on our history, and our tradition and our experience, such a weapon is monstrous and should be denied," he said.

Some experts said that although the concept of an ethnically targeted weapon was feasible, the practical aspects of creating one were enormous.... However, a confidential Pentagon report warned last year that biological agents could be genetically engineered to produce new lethal weapons. William Cohen, the American defense secretary, revealed that he had received reports of countries working to create "certain types of pathogens that would be ethnic-specific." A senior western intelligence source confirmed last week that Israel was one of the countries Cohen had in mind.

The "ethno-bomb" claims have been given further credence in Foreign Report, a Jane's publication that closely monitors security and defense matters. It reports unnamed South African sources as saying Israeli scientists have used some of the South African research in trying to develop an "ethnic bullet" against Arabs.

It also says Israelis discovered aspects of the Arab genetic make-up by researching on "Jews of Arab origin, especially Iraqis."

The British Medical Association has become so concerned about the lethal potential of genetically based biological weapons that it has opened an investigation, which is due to report in January.

Dr. Vivienne Nathanson, who organized the research, said:

"With an ethnically targeted weapon, you could even hit groups within a population. The history of warfare, in which many conflicts have an ethnic factor, shows us how dangerous this could be."

Porton Down, Britain's biological defense establishment, said last week that such weapons were theoretically possible.

"We have reached a point now where there is an obvious need for an international convention to control biological weapons," said a spokesman.

Israel's Ethnic Weapon

Wired Magazine, November 16, 1998
https://www.wired.com/1998/11/israels-ethnic-weapon/

Israel is reportedly developing a biological weapon that would harm Arabs while leaving Jews unaffected, according to a report in London's Sunday Times. The report, citing Israeli military and western intelligence sources, says that scientists are trying to identify distinctive genes carried by Arabs to create a genetically modified bacterium or virus.

The "ethno-bomb" is reportedly Israel's response to the threat that Iraq may be just weeks away from completing its own biological weapons.

The "ethno-bomb" program is based at Israel's Nes Tziyona research facility. Scientists are trying to use viruses and bacteria to alter DNA inside living cells and attack only those cells bearing Arabic genes.

The task is very complex because both Arabs and Jews are Semitic peoples. But according to the report, the Israelis have succeeded in isolating particular characteristics of certain Arabs, "particularly the Iraqi people."

Is Trump's Jared Kushner connection to the Chabad Lubavitch sect the cause for his dramatic U-turn?
The sect is deliberately fomenting a prophesied Third World War. It believes Jews are God's chosen people and everyone else is trash. In the book "Gatherings of Conversations" Rebbe Schneerson tells his followers that Jewish people are an extension of God and Gentiles are destined to serve the Jews. Historian Wolfgang Eggert says this is the real face of the Illuminati; the Rothschilds belong to this cult. He says this cult intends to initiate a nuclear holocaust in order to fulfill biblical prophecy and hasten the return of the Messiah:

"History and politics are a big movie, and they are the directors, bringing old-testament-prophecy into reality. They captured freemasonry by building up the illuminati (through Rothschild/Jacob Frank/Weishaupt); they made a pact with the British monarchy when they financed William III to become king; they placed the British royals at the head of the Freemasons; they made the modern banking system and the Fed (through Rothschild); they made Zionism, the world wars, the European union and so on. They reign through their puppets Rothschild (whose ancestors had been part of the chassidic cult) and Rockefeller, who were the guiding force behind Bilderberg, the trilaterals etc. We are now in the 'End Times'; they are trying to foment a 'prophesied' Third World War."

Chris Bjerkness agrees: Redemption requires the "King of the Jews" (the Rothschilds) to rule the world after a nuclear holocaust....

Another orthodox group, Ne'emanei Torah Va'Avodah, admits the genocidal precept here: http://toravoda.org.il/node/3398
You can use Google Translate to identify the terse but clear Hebrew:
"Hence, Rabbi Shimon Bar Yochai says: Kill Gentiles good..."
A variety of subterfuges and excuses are proffered in hopes of redeeming the irredeemably genocidal exhortation.

It is rare for "mainstream" (read "Jewish-owned") media to admit these genocidal precepts. On the rare occasions when such admissions are leaked, the precepts are ascribed to the "Ultra-Orthodox," as if these precepts do not pervade all Jewish sects:
September 2, 2015 Ultra-Orthodox Jewish School Children Are Taught That Non-Jews Are 'Evil'
The Independent (Britain)
British three-year-olds have been told "the non-Jews" are "evil" in a Kindergarten worksheet handed out at ultra-Orthodox Jewish schools in north London, it can be revealed ... Emily Green, who used to teach at the same Beis Rochel girls' secondary school ... "It's not uncommon to be taught non-Jewish people are evil in ultra-Orthodox Jewish schools. It is part of the prayers, teaching, their whole ethos," she said ...
Independently translated from Yiddish for The Independent, the worksheet's first question reads: "What have the evil goyim (non-Jews) done with the synagogues and cheders [Jewish primary schools]?" The answer in the completed worksheet reads: "Burned them." Another question asks: "What did the goyim want to do with all the Jews?" - to which the answer, according to the worksheet, is: "Kill them."

Dr. Baruch Goldstein was the Kach Party terrorist who machine gunned 39 Palestinians worshipping at Cave of the Patriarchs mosque in Hebron.

Rabbis praised his mass murder and then Prime Minister Yitshak Rabin gave permission for a memorial to honor Goldstein.

Graveside party celebrates Hebron massacre
Celebrants dressed as Baruch Goldstein
Militant Jews have gathered at the grave of Baruch Goldstein to celebrate the sixth anniversary of his massacre of Muslim worshippers in Hebron.
The celebrants dressed up as the gunman, wearing army uniforms, doctor's coats and fake beards.

Epitaph on the mass murderer's government-approved monument: "Here lies the saint, Dr. Baruch Kappel Goldstein, blessed be the memory of the righteous and holy man, may The Lord avenge his blood, who devoted his soul to The Jews, Jewish religion and Jewish land. His hands are innocent and his heart is pure. He was killed as a martyr of God on the 14th of Adar, Purim, in the year 5754."

Murderpedia's entry on Dr. Goldstein:

Responding to the massacre, Rabbi Yitzhak Levinger stated,

Rabbis Yitzhak Ginzburg and Yaakov Yosef endorse Rabbi Yitzhak Shapiro's 2009 book endorsing the killing of babies and children, adding "It is permissable to kill the Righteous among Nations even if they are not responsible for [threatening Israel]. If we kill a Gentile who has sinned or has violated one of the seven commandments - because we care about the commandments - there is nothing wrong with the murder."
http://www.haaretz.com/hasen/spages/1126890.html
and it is funded by the ersatz-Israeli government:
"Who is funding the rabbis who endorse killing Gentile babies?" By Akiva Eldar, Ha'aretz, 11/17/09
"...For example, [Israel's] government ministries regularly transfer support and funding to a yeshiva whose rabbi determined that it is permissible to kill gentile babies 'because their presence assists murder, and there is reason to harm children if it is clear that they will grow up to harm us ... it is permissible to harm the children of a leader in order to stop him from acting evilly ... we have seen in the Halakha that even babies of gentiles who do not violate the seven Noahide laws, there is cause to kill them because of the future threat that will be caused if they are raised to be wicked people like their parents...."

In 2007 Israel's former Sephardic Chief Rabbi Mordechai Eliyahu exhorted the indiscriminate killing of women and children: https://electronicintifada.net/content/top-israeli-rabbis-advocate-genocide/6974 and again in 2017 his son Chief Rabbi of Safed and Member of the Israeli Chief Rabbinate Council Shmuel Eliyahu insisted on the extermination of Palestinians as a "religious duty" to "get closer to God."

All these were reported in the Jerusalem Post, but the web pages have since been "disappeared."

From the Oral Torah, Talmud, Sanhedrin 57a:

"Regarding bloodshed, the following distinction applies: If a non-Jew killed another non-Jew, or a non-Jew killed a Jew, the killer is liable for execution; if a Jew killed a non-Jew, he is exempt from punishment."

Because Gentiles are not human, Gentiles are owed no debt of morality or decency: not honesty (Baba Kamma 113a), not property (Baba Mezia 24a), not even life! — "Kill even the best of the Gentiles" (among many, Soferim 15, 10)

"Regarding a Jew stealing from a non-Jew, the act is permitted." (Sanhedrin 57a)

putting genocidal Jewish theology into practice

"If a Jew needs a liver, can you take the liver of an innocent non-Jew passing by to save him? The Torah would probably allow that. Jewish life has an infinite value."
Rabbi Yitzhak Ginsburgh, quoted in Jewish Fundamentalism in Israel by Prof. Israel Shahak and Norton Mezvinsky, London: Pluto Press, 2004, p. 62

https://pbs.twimg.com/media/CR3w3YPUwAAswq8.png:large

No mere abstract theory, the rabbis have put such liver theology into practice by harvesting organs from gentiles.

The rabbis' calls to murder are still in the news.

JERUSALEM — The marble-patterned, hardcover book embossed with gold Hebrew letters looks like any other religious commentary you'd find in an Orthodox Judaica bookstore — but reads like a rabbinic instruction manual outlining acceptable scenarios for killing non-Jewish babies, children and adults.
"The prohibition 'Thou Shalt Not Murder'" applies only "to a Jew who kills a Jew," write Rabbis Yitzhak Shapira and Yosef Elitzur of the West Bank settlement of Yitzhar. Non-Jews are "uncompassionate by nature" and attacks on them "curb their evil inclination," while babies and children of Israel's enemies may be killed since "it is clear that they will grow to harm us."

"Even when we seek revenge, it is important to make one thing clear – the life of one yeshiva boy is worth more than the lives of 1,000 Arabs. The Talmud states that if gentiles rob Israel of silver they will pay it back in gold, and all that is taken will be paid back in folds, but in cases like these there is nothing to pay back, since as I said – the life of one yeshiva boy is worth more than the lives of 1,000 Arabs."

"... the explanation of the matter, [is to be found] in light of what Rabbi Chayim Vital wrote in Shaar HaKedushah (and in Etz Chayim, Portal 5, ch. 2) — that every Jew, whether righteous or wicked, possesses two souls, as it is written, "And neshamot (souls) which I have made. ... The second, uniquely Jewish, soul is truly "a part of G-d above, The souls of the nations of the world (the Gentiles), however, emanate from the other, unclean kelipot which contain no good whatever, as is written in Etz Chayim, Portal 40, ch. 3, that all the good that (Gentiles) do, is done out of selfish motives. So the Gemara comments on the verse, 'The kindness of (Gentiles) is sin — that all the charity and kindness done by (Gentiles) of the world is only for their self-glorification...' (Chapters 1 and 2) The lower category consists of three completely unclean and evil kelipot, containing no good whatever... From them flow and are derived the souls of all the nations of the world (Gentiles), and the sustaining force of their bodies. Also derived from these kelipot are the souls of all living creatures that are unclean and forbidden to be eaten, and the sustaining force of their bodies." Tanya, Chapter 6

Rabbi Abraham Israel Kook

"Rabbi Kook the Elder, the revered father of the messianic tendency in Jewish fundamentalism, said, 'The difference between a Jewish soul and the souls of non-Jews—all of them in all different levels—is greater and deeper than the difference between a human soul and the souls of cattle.' Rabbi Kook's entire teaching... is followed devoutly by, among others, those who have led the settler movement in the occupied West Bank... According to the ideologies which underlie Gush Emunum, the militant West Bank settlers group, and Hasidism, non-Jews have 'satanic souls'... Members of Gush Emunum argue that 'what appears to be confiscation of Arab-owned land for subsequent settlement by Jews is in reality not an act of stealing but one of sanctification.' From their perspective the land is redeemed by being transferred from the satanic to the divine sphere... Common to both the Talmud and the Halacha, Orthodox religious law, is a differentiation between Jews and non-Jews. The highly revered Rabbi Menachem Mandel Schneerson, who headed the Chabad movement and wielded great influence in Israel as well [and proclaimed himself messiah], explained that 'The difference between a Jewish and a non-Jewish person stems from the common expression: 'Let us differentiate.' Thus, we do not have a case of profound change in which a person is merely on a superior level. Rather we have a case of 'let us differentiate' between totally different species. This is what needs to be said about the body: the body of a Jewish person is of a totally different quality from the body of all nations of the world.'"

"I believe, that the Jews have a mission in life. They must see to it that the nations of the world get together in one vast federation. 'Union Now' is the beginning of this. Slowly but surely the world will develop into a paradise. We will have perpetual peace. And the Jews will do the most to bring about this confederation, because they have the most to gain. But how can you get peace if Germany exists? The only way to win an eternal peace is to make the punishment of waging war more horrible than war itself. Human beings are penalized for murder, aren't they? Well, Germany starts all the wars of magnitude. Let us sterilize all Germans and wars of world domination will come to an end!"

Israel is Developing 'Ethnic Bomb' for Growing Biological Weapons Arsenal

by Mark Weber
http://www.ihr.org/jhr/v17/v17n6p24_Weber.html

Israel is working on an "ethnically targeted" biological weapon that would kill or harm Arabs but not Jews, according to Israeli military and western intelligence sources cited in a front-page report in the London Sunday Times, November 15, 1998 ("Israel Planning 'Ethnic' Bomb as Saddam Caves In," by Uzi Mahnaimi and Marie Colvin).

In developing this "ethno-bomb," the British paper went on, Israeli scientists are trying to exploit medical advances by identifying distinctive genes carried by some Arabs, and then create a genetically modified bacterium or virus. The goal is to use the ability of viruses and certain bacteria to alter the DNA inside the host's living cells. The scientists are trying to engineer deadly microorganisms that attack only those bearing the distinctive genes.

The secret Israel program is based at the Institute for Biological Research in Nes Tsiona, a small town southeast of Tel Aviv, the main research facility for Israel's clandestine arsenal of chemical and biological weapons.

A scientist there said the task is very complicated because both Arabs and Jews are of Semitic origin. But he added: "They have, however, succeeded in pinpointing a particular characteristic in the genetic profile of certain Arab communities, particularly the Iraqi people." Diseases could be spread by spraying organisms into the air or putting them in water supplies.

Some experts have commented that while an ethnically targeted weapon is theoretically feasible, the practical aspects of creating one are enormous. All the same, a confidential Pentagon report warned last year that biological agents could be genetically engineered to produce new lethal weapons.

US Defense Secretary William Cohen revealed that he had received reports of countries working to create "certain types of pathogens that would be ethnic-specific." A senior western intelligence source confirmed that Israel is one of the countries Cohen had in mind, the Sunday Times report added.

Reliable Record

The Sunday Times report is all the more credible given the prestigious paper's past record of reliable reporting. In a detailed front-page report published on June 19, 1977, the Sunday Times first revealed to the world that Israeli authorities had been torturing Palestinian prisoners, that this torture was "widespread and systematic," and that it "appears to be sanctioned at some level as deliberate policy." At the time Israeli officials and Jewish-Zionist leaders in the United States protested the Sunday Times revelations, and denied the charge. Later, though, Israeli torture of prisoners was independently verified by Amnesty International, and others.

Another recent Sunday Times article revealed that Israeli jets have been equipped to carry chemical and biological weapons. "There is hardly a single known or unknown form of chemical or biological weapons ... which is not manufactured at the [Nes Tsiona] Institute," a biologist who is a former Israeli intelligence official told the newspaper. And the Israeli newspaper Yediot Ahronot, citing a foreign report, has told readers that hundreds of bottles of deadly anthrax toxin are stored at the Institute.

The "ethnic bomb" claims have been given further credence in Foreign Report, an authoritative Jane's publication that closely monitors security and military matters. It cites unnamed South African sources as saying that Israeli scientists, in trying to develop an "ethnic bullet" against Arabs, have made use of similar biological studies conducted by South African scientists during the Apartheid era (and later revealed in testimony before that country's "Truth and Reconciliation Commission"). Foreign Report also says that Israelis have gained insights into the Arab genetic make-up by conducting research on "Jews of Arab origin, especially Iraqis."

The British Medical Association has become so concerned about the lethal potential of genetically-based biological weapons that it has opened an investigation. Dr. Vivienne Nathanson, who organized the research, said: "With an ethnically targeted weapon, you could even hit groups within a population. The history of warfare, in which many conflicts have an ethnic factor, shows how dangerous this could be."

A spokesman for Britain's biological defense establishment confirms that such weapons are theoretically possible. "We have reached a point now where there is an obvious need for an international convention to control biological weapons," he said.

The Anti-Defamation League lost no time denouncing the Sunday Times "ethnic bomb" report. Abraham Foxman, national director of the influential Jewish-Zionist organization, called it "irresponsible and dangerous." The ADL official went on: "This sensational story is reminiscent of the age-old anti-Semitic blood libel myth of Jews deviously targeting non-Jews with poison." [see Ritual Murder] Question: How does Foxman know that this report is not true? Do high-level Israeli officials routinely inform the ADL of the Zionist government's top-secret military programs?

A senior Israeli government official similarly rejected the Sunday Times report, saying "this is the kind of story that does not deserve denial." Such Israeli declarations are virtually worthless, however, considering that the Zionist state refuses officially to acknowledge that it has nuclear weapons, a fact that even authoritative American sources have confirmed.

Therefore, to avoid a rebellion by the goyim if the truth were known, devious disavowals of the rabbinic law are made in public for the sake of pacifying ("mipnei darkhei shalom") the gullible goyim.

Mr. Gurvitz asserts that where Judaic supremacy reigns supreme ("where 'Israel' is mighty"), as in the Israeli state, no such diplomatic niceties need be observed, and the full force of Talmudic/rabbinic halacha, with its institutionalized contempt for, and discrimination toward non-Judaics, can be fully exerted.

"Those who have caused trouble for 'Israel' by not recognizing that all creation (including Gentiles themselves) exists entirely for the service of 'Israel,' will be discussed about, judged and shamed by 'G-d,' 'Israel,' 'the angels' and 'the elders of the House of David,' after which they will be turned to ash, never to return, but not before 'witnessing the joy of Israel.' Those who have recognized that their lot in life is to love and serve 'the Jews' will have as their reward, continued loving and serving of 'the Jews' as farmers and wine pressers and have the opportunity to view 'the joy of Israel' from their servitude. curses on Christians

"And for Christians let there be no hope..."
Birkat HaMinim, "Benediction" #12 of the Shmone Esreh

'Amidah' - Birkat Ha'Minim invocation

So what exactly is the 'Amidah' prayer? This invocation is 1927 years old and in the 12th 'benediction' the Talmudic Jews curse Christians. The Talmudists are required to pray this by Halachic law not once, not twice, but three times a day in order to be considered Jewish!

And for Christians let there be no hope, and may all the evil in an instant be destroyed and all thy enemies be cut down swiftly; and the evil ones uproot and break and destroy and humble soon in our days. Blessed are you lord who breaks enemies and humbles sinners. (Birkat HaMinim, "Benediction" #12 of the Shmone Esreh (18 Benedictions) mandated by halacha to be prayed by every Orthodox Judaic male three times daily).
https://mauricepinay.blogspot.com/2008/02/hypocrites.html

The Amidah prayer in its section twelve (formerly section nineteen) contains the Birkat HaMinim, the curse on Christians ("'Ha' or 'la' 'minim'"): Kerega karishah v'khol tikvah tehi al ve laminim ("Let there be no hope for the wicked and for Christians"). The curse has since been disguised by telling inquiring gentiles that the text is targeted not at laminim but at lamalshinim ("slanderers") and is aimed at malicious gossips, not Christians. The goyim usually believe this nonsensical cover story. It would be "antisemitic" not to believe it. The truth, however, may be discovered in any uncensored edition of BT Berakhot 28b-29a. The failure to recite this section of the Amidah "prayer" was considered a sure indication that the Judaic who failed to say it was a crypto-Christian. Hence, recitation of the Birkat HaMinim was a litmus test to determine if a Judaic was secretly harboring Christian beliefs. In the past, Judaics who failed this test were subject to the rabbinic penal laws of the cherem, including beating, whipping and in extreme cases, execution. The Birkat HaMinim prayer also consists in the supplication that Christians be "swiftly cut down (m'heriah... yika reitu)... doomed (toveid)... destroyed (ut mahgeir)" and "uprooted (fe'akeir)." Judeo-Churchians refer to this curse as a "blessing" — "the blessing of the Amidah."
source: Michael A. Hoffman II, Judaism Discovered (2008), footnote #272, p. 279

The patristic authority Jerome (342-420) complained bitterly, in his commentary to Isaiah, about the Jews' condemnation of notsrim (believers in Jesus, "the Nazarite"), in the benediction of the daily Amidah known as Birkat ha-Minim: "The Jews . . . after having been invited by the Lord to do penitence . . . up to the present day persevere in blasphemy and three times a day in all their synagogues they anathemize the Christian name."
His complaint echoes even harsher early Christian polemics, such as that of the Church Father Epiphanius (315-403): "Not only do Jewish people have a hatred of their enemies; they even stand up at dawn, at midday, and toward evening, three times a day when they recite their prayers in the synagogue, and curse and anathemize them. Three times a day they say, 'God curse the Nazoreans.' For they harbor an extra grudge against them . . . because, despite their Jewishness, they preach that Jesus is the Christ, the opposite of those who are still Jews, for they have not accepted Jesus."

Fresh off the 'drukn' — The Bible of Friendship

'Human Guinea Pigs'

Victor Ostrovsky, a former case officer of Israel's Mossad intelligence agency, recalled in his book The Other Side of Deception how he first learned of the Zionist state's secret weapons center:

> It was Uri who enlightened me regarding the Nes Zionna [Tsiona] facility. It was, he said, an ABC warfare laboratory -- ABC standing for atomic, biological and chemical. It was where our top epidemiological scientists were developing various doomsday machines. Because we were so vulnerable and would not have a second chance should there be an all-out war in which this type of weapon would be needed, there was no room for error. The [captured] Palestinian infiltrators came in handy in this regard. As human guinea pigs, they could make sure the weapons the scientists were developing worked properly and could verify how fast they worked and make them even more efficient.

As most of the world recognizes, United States policy toward countries that develop nuclear, chemical and biological weapons is sanctimonious and brazenly hypocritical.

Recently, for example, the US government sharply condemned India and Pakistan for testing nuclear weapons. Of course, the only country ever to have actually used nuclear weapons is the United States. ...

For decades, though, America's political and intellectual leaders — reflecting their obsequious subservience to Jewish-Zionist interests — condone Israel's growing arsenal of sophisticated nuclear, chemical and biological weapons.

On the other hand, most of the cases of noncompliance with the limitations imposed upon Jews in regard to farming tolls, state and other revenues, possessing Christian serfs, leasing and administering estates, and serving as overseers over Christians occurred in these regions too. Here Jews appear as leaseholders of large estates with hundreds or possibly thousands of serfs, of whole towns, and of town revenues farmed from town burghers themselves (Kowel in 1702 and others). Here, too, a considerable number of Jews lived in private cities, towns, and villages, and were subject to the jurisdiction, legislation, and protection of the noblemen owners, with all the inherent advantages and disadvantages.[22] And here too Jews continued to possess slaves during the seventeenth century, even forcing some of them to convert to Judaism.
In short, the legal and even more the practical situation of the Jews in the kingdom of Poland during the sixteenth to eighteenth centuries is far from following any straight line or pattern. It resembles rather a kaleidoscope whose combinations of design change with period, region, and circumstances. The pattern was influenced by the interests, biases, fears, and beliefs of the social groups and subgroups in the country, by the impact of political and other forces, and, on the other hand, by the financial and actual position of the Jews themselves, their strength, their ingenuity in making friends and finding supporters, and in balancing one group against another.

Goyim were born only to serve us. They have no place in the world - only to serve the people of Israel
Senior Israeli Sephardic Rabbi Ovadia Yosef

October 18, 2010, Senior Sephardi Rabbi Ovadia Yosef announces that Gentiles only exist to serve Jews:
"Goyim were born only to serve us. Without that, they have no place in the world – only to serve the People of Israel… In Israel, death has no dominion over them… With gentiles, it will be like any person – they need to die, but [God] will give them longevity. Why? Imagine that one's donkey would die, they'd lose their money. This is his servant… That's why he gets a long life, to work well for this Jew. Why are gentiles needed? They will work, they will plow, they will reap. We will sit like an effendi and eat. That is why gentiles were created."

evident that Rabbi Akiba referred to every human being as having been created in the image of God. However Rabbi Akiba was also of the opinion that the words l'olam bahem ta'avodu (You should keep them in slavery forever—Leviticus 25:46) express an obligation (hovah).[9] Samuel, an amora of the third century, contends that a man who frees a slave transgresses a normative commandment (mitsvat aseh).[10] The opinion of Samuel caused a modern author, Solomon Zuckrow, to comment: "The Talmud is the only code of laws among the ancient collections of laws which considered manumission a crime."[11] Zuckrow erred for the Talmud records many cases of manumission. The opinions of Rabbi Akiba and Samuel remained controversial. Some medieval codifiers of the halakhah accepted them and some rejected them. Maimonides accepted them and listed the obligation of keeping a gentile slave forever among the normative commandments (Number 235).[12] But not all the codifiers agreed with Maimonides. Already Saadiah followed Rabbi Ishamel that the verse in Leviticus 25:46 is not a commandment.[13]

The scholars who accepted the opinion of Rabbi Akiba felt the need to rationalize it. They usually explained that it was in the interest of the slave to live with his master in a Jewish environment and fulfill some of the mitzvot of the Torah.[14] Aaron ben Joseph ha-Levi of Barcelona (thirteenth century), author of Sefer HaHinukh, agrees with Maimonides. He writes:

> A gentile slave has to be enslaved forever . . . one of the main reasons being that since the Jewish nation is the elite of the human race and the Jews were chosen to worship their creator and to serve before Him they deserve to have slaves to serve them. If they will not have slaves from the midst of the neighboring nations they will have to get slaves from their own midst and they (i.e., the Jewish slaves) will be unable to serve God; therefore we are commanded to keep gentile slaves forever . . .[15]

10 Ibid. S. Zeitlin in his study, "Slavery during the Second Commonwealth and the Tannaitic Period" (JQR LIII, 3, 1963, pp. 185 ff.) claims that the controversy between Rabbi Ishmael and Rabbi Akiba about the meaning of the verse in Leviticus 25:46 did not refer to the manumission of pagan slaves but to the sale of a slave who does not want to undergo circumcision. Zeitlin also claims that Samuel never made a statement that one "who frees a slave transgresses a normative commandment." Zeitlin claims that this statement which Rav Judah made in the name of Samuel is meant as a homily (see Zeitlin, "Mar Samuel and the manumission of slaves," JQR LV, 1964–5, pp. 267–9). It is difficult to agree with both of these assertions of Zeitlin. From Sota 3a it is evident that the controversy between Rabbi Ishmael and Rabbi Akiba concerns the interpretation of certain verses whether they have to be understood as reshut (permis-

a sense of emergency to most Jewish Texans. On a personal level, Klansmen gave their Jewish neighbors little reason to fear them, and examples abound of cordial personal and business relations between Texas Jews and Klan members. When the Klan first marched in Houston in 1921, they wore robes and hoods bought from a Jewish manufacturer.[40] John Rosenfield, a Jewish reporter for the Dallas Morning News who later became its arts editor and one of the city's most influential cultural figures, began his career covering Klan picnics. Fred Florence, a leading Dallas banker, was a longtime friend of Zeke Marvin, head of the Texas Klan.[41] And during a Dallas recruitment drive, Klansmen visited Edward Titche, the Jewish head of the Titche-Goettinger department store, to invite him to join. Titche was obliged to explain why he could not, to which a Klansman replied that it was a shame—Titche would have made a fine recruiter.[42]

Fort Worth rabbi G. George Fox treated Klan members as the friends and associates they were, and when reports of Klan violence in his city began to surface, Fox expressed only mild dissatisfaction. "We had hoped," he said, "that the Ku Klux Klan would do some things that perhaps would add to the good and the glory of the nation . . . without infringing on the rights of others."[43] When word spread of a potential boycott of Jewish businesses, Fox went to his contacts inside the Klan and received their "absolute word" that no boycott would take place.[44] Upon the rabbi's acceptance of a Chicago pulpit in 1923, the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce held a banquet in his honor "at which," Fox remembered, "the Texas head of the Ku Klux Klan presided, and a check was given me as a going-away present, with which I was to buy a new car when we got to Chicago."[45] Fox did speak out against the Klan in the abstract, and against its harsher methods, but he chose his words carefully and presented his criticism amicably. abortion is from the Jews

rape is from the Jews

When a Jewish man rapes a gentile woman, it is a capital offense, but the woman or child victim (if she is above the age of 3), is the one to be executed:

> 9 When a gentile engages in relations with a Jewish woman, if she is married, he should be executed. If she is single, he is not executed.
> 10 If, by contrast, a Jewish male enters into relations with a gentile woman, when he does so intentionally, she should be executed. She is executed because she caused a Jew to be involved in an unseemly transgression, as [is the law with regard to] an animal. [This applies regardless of] whether the gentile women was a minor of three years of age,* or an adult, whether she was single or married. And it applies even if [the Jew] was a minor of nine years old, [she is executed].

> * If, however, she is younger than three, the relations are not considered significant.

You read that correctly. In Jewish law, even a child victim of rape is executed.

(Kedar is also a research fellow at the Begin-Sadat Center for Strategic Studies at Bar-Ilan).
> "Though it will be claimed by the usual public relations hacks that Prof. Kedar's monstrous rape/deterrent observation is 'condemned by the Jewish tradition' (citing, for example, Babylonian Talmud, Kiddushin 22), there are rabbinic escape clauses which justify rape of non-Judaic women.
> "First, the rape target must be classified as a zonah (prostitute) or a nokri (hostile alien). The supreme Ashkenazic halachic authority, Rabbi Moses Maimonides, rules that a Judaic soldier may rape this type of female POW (yefas to'ar) when he is not actively fighting a battle (cf. It is the consensus of many halakhic decisors that the yefat to'ar can be subject to involuntary intercourse, though only once, after which she must undergo a specific regimen prescribed in the Torah, conversion and marriage, before her captor is permitted further sexual relations with her. There is a dispute among rishonim, pre-sixteenth century decisors, regarding the venue of the initial sexual relationship. Some argue it can take place on the battlefield; others state it must take place elsewhere; still others maintain that relations on the battlefield prior to conversion can only take place with the woman's consent. There are others who are of the view that even the first sexual contact can only take place after the regimen, conversion and marriage. For a complete discussion see R. > "Two of the most egregious instances of this type of fake news involve the celebrated Zionist Left wing 'newspaper of record,' the New York Times, which has refused to report that Israeli Prof. Mordechai Kedar of Bar-Ilan University, (1) and the Israeli Military's Chief Rabbi Eyal Karim (also spelled "Qarim"), advocate raping Arab women.
> "The Times regards the unconscionable pronouncements of the Chief Rabbi and the Israeli university professor as not worthy of reporting.
>
> "Rabbi Karim and Prof. Kedar's views subvert the mainstream media narrative, in that they radically undercut the fake news image of the rabbinic religion as a supremely ethical and humane pillar of western civilization.
> "To protect this incessantly propagated disinformation, the Times suppresses the fact that rape advocacy is derived from rabbinic law. Rabbi Moses Maimonides, the supreme halachic authority among the Ashkenazim, ruled that a Judaic soldier may rape a Yefas To'ar (female goy captive) when he is not actively fighting a battle (cf. Hilchos Melachim 8:3)...."

September 20, 2017, Harvey Weinstein at September Gala: 'I Am Israeli in My Heart and Mind'
The Algemeiner (Brooklyn, NY)
https://www.algemeiner.com/2017/09/20/oscar-winning-producer-harvey-weinstein-at-algemeiner-gala-i-am-israeli-in-my-heart-and-mind/

> "Oscar-winning film producer Harvey Weinstein expressed his deep love and appreciation for the Jewish state on Monday [Sept. 18], saying, 'I am an Israeli in my heart and mind.' Speaking on the red carpet at The Algemeiner's fourth annual gala in New York City, Weinstein emphasized, 'I love that country, I love what it stands for, I am proud to be Jewish.' The Hollywood mogul recounted his appearance at The Algemeiner's gala in 2013, when he presented Holocaust survivor and Nobel Peace Prize laureate Elie Wiesel with the 'Warrior for Truth' award. Wiesel served as chairman of The Algemeiner's Tribute Committee until his passing in 2016."

October 11, 2017, Harvey Weinstein: Ardent Supporter of Israel
If Americans Knew
https://israelpalestinenews.org/movie-mogul-harvey-weinstein-september-gala-israeli-heart-mind/
> "The New York Times, New Yorker, and numerous other news outlets have been reporting widely on accusations that movie mogul Harvey Weinstein, sometimes called one of the most powerful people in Hollywood, sexually assaulted actresses for decades. Some of the news stories point out that Weinstein has been known as a supporter of progressive causes and raised money for Hillary Clinton, but none mention his longtime support for Israel ... In Weinstein's rambling acceptance speech [at a 2015 gala of the Simon Wiesenthal Center] he said that Jews should get 'as organized as the mafia' in fighting anti-Semitism, saying it was essential to 'start acting now ... if we don't, we will perish.' ... At a gala last month for Algemeiner, Weinstein proclaimed: 'I am an Israeli in my heart and mind.'"

October 9, 2017, New York Times Could Have Exposed Harvey Weinstein's Sexual Misconduct 13 Years Ago, Claims Former Reporter
Newsweek
> "The New York Times's explosive report last week alleging sexual harassment by Hollywood mogul Harvey Weinstein has resulted in the Oscar-winning producer being ousted from his own company. But a former reporter for the newspaper has claimed that she could have exposed Weinstein's purported misdemeanors 13 years ago, but that editors killed a story she had reported on the subject, perhaps under pressure from Weinstein himself. Sharon Waxman, editor of Hollywood business trade website TheWrap, wrote Sunday that she investigated "oft-repeated allegations of sexual misconduct by Weinstein" while a relatively new reporter at the Times in 2004."

* See the deadly code of silence, *mesirah

The term for an individual who commits mesirah is moser (מוסר) or mossur. A person who informs on his fellow Jews is considered subject to din moser (law of the informer), which is analogous to din rodef (law of the pursuer, used to justify abortion) in that both prescribe death for the offender.

October 9, 2017, Wiesenthal Center Isn't Withdrawing 'Humanitarian' Award Given to Harvey Weinstein https://www.jta.org/2017/10/09/arts-entertainment/wiesenthal-center-isnt-withdrawing-prize-given-to-harvey-weinstein
> "The Simon Wiesenthal Center said it has not considered withdrawing an award given to movie mogul Harvey Weinstein, who was fired by the production company he founded following a string of sexual harassment allegations. However, the head of the organization denounced Weinstein's actions. Weinstein received the 2015 Humanitarian Award from the group, which promotes tolerance, and was honored at its annual gala dinner. Weinstein received the award due in part to his contributions to the group, which have totaled nearly $100,000. That year's dinner brought in $1.75 million. 'We honored Harvey Weinstein because he and his company, like many other leaders in the entertainment world, have been longtime supporters of the Wiesenthal Center and its work,' Simon Wiesenthal Center spokesman Marcial Lavina wrote..."

October 2017, The Specifically Jewy Perviness of Harvey Weinstein—The disgraced film producer is a character straight out of Philip Roth, playing out his revenge fantasies on the Goyim*
by Mark Oppenheimer - Tablet http://www.tabletmag.com/scroll/246724/the-specifically-jewy-perviness-of-harvey-weinstein
> "At first squint, Harvey Weinstein seems like a very familiar type. Isn't he the old, same old, another rich, entitled, powerful man with a bad dye job abusing his might to coerce women into sex? Isn't Harvey just like Roger Ailes, or Bill O'Reilly, or, for that matter, Bill Clinton? But look at the details of the case and you'll see that the answer is no. Harvey is different. Harvey, sadly, is a deeply Jewish kind of pervert ... If you want to understand this bizarre behavior, don't look to Roger Ailes, or David Vitter, or Paul Crouch - look to Philip Roth. Better than perhaps any other author, Roth captured the particular anxiety of the Jewish American man in the twentieth century, finally coming into power but, having not grown up with it, unsure of what he's supposed to do now. All those years craving unattainable Gentiles, but never before the means to entice them."

*As sure as the sun rises in the east, an apology was quickly tendered by the Jewish author Mark Oppenheimer for his "hasty" admissions: http://www.tabletmag.com/scroll/246857/an-apology

Occult "Black Cube" organziation consists of "veterans from elite #Israeli intelligence units" operating in the U.S. #BlackCube was allegedly hired to use trickery and cheating to stop publication of negative news articles about #HarveyWeinstein.
A contract with one of at least three private investigation firms that Mr. Weinstein employed, Black Cube, listed its "primary objectives" as providing "intelligence which will help the client's efforts to completely stop the publication of a new negative article in a leading NY Newspaper" and obtaining content from a book that was to include "harmful, negative information on and about the client."
Black Cube promotes itself as "a select group of veterans from the Israeli elite intelligence units."
One of its agents posed as a potential Weinstein accuser to secure two meetings with Ben Wallace, a New York magazine reporter who was pursuing a Weinstein article that never came to be. She also reached out to one of the two lead New York Times reporters on the Weinstein story.

2940 kybeía (from kybos, "a cube" or "die") – properly, dice-playing (WS, 859); hence, "gaming, trickery, sleight" (Souter). 2940 (kybeia), associated with a "sleight of the hand," implies the use of trickery and cheating (used only in Eph 4:14).

כל המאבד נפש אחת מישראל - מעלה עליו הכתוב כאילו קיים
